THE RIGHT TO DIE.

A verdict of felo de se was feturned at the Hampstead Coroner's Court recently at the resumed inquest on Mrs. Sam Olga Jacoby, aged third-eight, the wife of Mr. John Jacoby, a lace manufacturer, o Crediton-road, West Hampstead.

Mrs. Jacoby had been in both health for the last three years, and had undergone four operations. A few days before her death, though cheerful, she spoke to her husband of death, and wrote what she said she believed would be her farowell letters. She often said that when she was no use to her children she would be justified in taking her life.

In a farewell letter she wrots :-I have made up my mind to take a sleeping draught instead of having another attack. It may be my farewell to you. am getting worse and worse. I think there is no harm in shortening it. Dr. Ladwig Freyberger said death was due to an overdose of emdamol. "We have no evidence of any unsoundness of mind," said the coroner, "In fact.

the evidence is contrary to that." "I distinctly wish the jury to return a verdict in accordance with the evidence." said Mr. Jacoby. " My wife only did what she felt she had a perfect right to do. If the jury returned a verdict from senti-ment it would be an insult to my wife's

The jury, after consultation in private, returned a verdict of " Felo de se."

Time was when disease was thought to be due to the direct influence of evil spirits, and exorcism and magic were invoked to cast it out.

REMARKABLE FIGURES.

According to the 1912 Board of Trade Landon traffic retures, it appears that 48,812 trade vehicles cross the Thames by the ten bridges and two tunnels between Batterson and Blackwall during the twelve hours, from 8 a.m. to 8. p.m. Ta this grand total up to 60,000 trade vehicles. Assuming each trade vehicle so crossing the Thames in the twenty-four hours to be Sunted twice (ones coming and once going), the actual number of vehicles would "be 30,000. The whole of these vehicles would be approaching from, or leaving by, the south of the Thames. If a like number of trade vehicles approach from, or leave by, the northi the east, and the west, the total would be quadrupled, and the total number of trade vehicles approaching or leaving London in all directions in twenty-four hours would be 120,000. The gross carnings of a carrier's pair horse van, man, and boy may be estimated to average 25s, per day those of a sirgle Joseph Tichborne. I have asked you many horse van, man, and boy 17s.; those of a builder's one-horse cart and man, 10s.; a motor lorry and man, 40s. Pair-horse vans are in a minurity, and probably do not amount to more than 10 per cent. of the whole, although they constitute about 25 per cent, of the enumerated trade vehicles orossing the Thames.

120,000 TRADE VEHICLES. It would be quite impossible to make any accurate statement of the cost of London cartage, but a fairly approximate estimate may be resched. The cost of the estimated 120,000 trade vehicles, including maintenance, over head charges and proble, taxation, and all charges (except mend mending and cleaning and policing) may be set down PAL GATAL 12 0:10 2-horse vans at 25s. ... £15,000 50,000 1-horse yans at 17s. £42,500 48,000 1 horse yans at 10s. £24,000 10,000 motorrans at 40s. £20,000

Multiplying this sum by 311 working days, we reach the total cost of the year's castage, rit., £31,566,500. This would appear to be the present cost of blocking London's street with vehicles, 95 per cent of which would be upprecessing under the o inditions which I advocate, and which you, sir, have fully explained in your co-

House of Commons.

GREAT BRITAIN TO IN CHINERE. (June 180.) Mr. MaoCallum Scott maked the Secretary for Foreign Affairs whether in all Treaties with China and in other; public documents, and in the British Consulates and other British Government offices in China, where the Chinese character was used, the term Great Britain was translated by "Imperial England" and whether the Government intended.

to take any stops to secure that in future,

a representative and proper term should be used, in accordance with the first article of the Trenty of Union between Scotland and England. Mr. Adand, who replied, said: I am unable to reply to the first part of the queation, but I will make inquiry. would, however, point out that it is the quatom now to provide in treaties and conventions concluded with China, that in the event of there being any difference of meaning between the English and Chineso texts the senso; as, expressed in the English text shall be held to be the correct sense. By the words, " the English text." I mean the text written in the English language, and intend no disrespect to the hon, member's native 918 | country. Mr. MacCallum Scott also asked the Secretary for Foreign Affairs whether he would state what was the Chinese expression which was used as equivalent to the United Kingdom or to Great Britain in treatics with China and other public doouments in which the Chinese character was med; and what was the exact English translation of that Chineso term. Mr. Asland: I cannot give the hon.

member the information for which he asks. I will, however, obtain it from His Majesty's representative at Peking. if the hon, member wishes.

THE RECENT CHINESE LOAN. (July 3.) Sir John Spear, on behalf of Mr. Norman Craig, asked the Foreign Scoretary whother he was aware that the bankers of the quintuple group issued the recent Chinese loan at a price which niter a large profit to the bankers, offered to the investing public a yield of about 5] per cent.; that the amount of the issuo in London, 27,416,000, was subscribed twelve times over; that the City of Montreal issue, £1,430,000, carrying 41 per cont, and issued about the same. time at par, was less than half subscribed. by the public, more than half being left to the underwriters; whother he recognised that the issue at a low price with a high yield of stock carrying the diplomatic support of His Majesty's Government was calculated to effect prejudicially issues of our national. Colonial, and municipal stock at prices giving a yield according with ordinary market rotes; and whether His Majesty's Government would in future refuse to give diplomation. support of a monopolistic character with out reserving control over the financia aspect of the projects supported. Sir E. Grey: With regard to the firs part of the question, respecting the purely financial aspect of the loan, I must refor the honourable member to the reply which I gave him on June 12. I unable to accopt the conclusions which the honourable member has drawn from s comparison between the subscriptions to the two loans referred to. The public are naturally free to choose their own investments, and His Majesty's Government have no control over their choice. Many pravious loans, both to China and other countries, have had the diplomatic sent us not later than 2 p.m. import of His Majesty's Government; n this instance His Majesty's Government were only one of five Powers who gave support without, however, incurring my pecuniary liability such as a guaran-

tre. With regard to the future, His Majesty's Government will cortainly continuo to be interested, if only for the benefit of British enterprise and trade, stability being given to Chipeso finarce, and I cannot give any general undertaking as to the nature of their action, which must largely depend on the development of the situation. It may be that at any given moment it is undesirable for His Majesty's Government to encourage the issue of loons, and when such considerations are present they will be taken into account.

THE CANADIAN CUP.

QUEEN ALEXANDRA'S PISIT TO DEVENTA.

OLYMPIA, Friday, June 27. Queen Alexandra and her sister, the D. wager Empress of Russia, attended the early session of the International Horse Show this morning to see the first section | HONGKONG, of jumpers for the Canadian Cup. Her Majesty is very fond of horses, and sh' loves to see good jumping. One noticed this morning that she often stood up to that she could see how they negotiated the sloping mile and the level croming which were not well within her rion, At a really good po formance her Majesty applauded generously. The Empress of Russia, too, was very interested. The Hou. Charlotte Knallys, Sir Dighton Probyn. and Colonel Stroetfeild worp in attendance, and Lord Lousdale and Lord Redesdale accompanied the Queen, in the box. They did not occupy the Royal box, Queen Alaxandra lineing expressed a preference for one on the lowest tier, which gave her a closer view of the arena;

Unfortunately it cannot be said that the To be had at the Onina Mary Office. jumping, as a whole, was first class. Still, there, were some good performances. The Canadian Challenge Cop is presented by Colonel Adam Book, of Canada, and it is the second trophy of its kind. The first was won outright by Lieutenant J. A Celebrated Violiniste Nervous Fatigue, Languor-

The power to excel, the confidence which ensures her brilliant successes, says the talented violinist, Miss Sybil Keymer, is entirely due to her abundance of vigorous nerve force created by Phosferine. How greatly the numerous distinctions and triumphant career of this accomplished musician are promoted by the brain energy and physical stamina developed by Phosferine, is evident from Miss Keymer's admission that the tonic "enabled me to do myself justice." This power to excel, this ability to make perfect use of her skill, depends upon the marvellous control and steadiness of the muscle nerves Phosferne has given her, and to which she owes the entrancing tone and quality of her, musical renditions. Naturally, this energising effect of Phosferine was accompanied by the disappearance of the beadaches, listlessness, and fatigue, which were the bane of her public appearances, and it is this happyoutcome which impels Miss Keymer to testify to the exceptional advantages to be derived from Phosferine."

Promptly Remedied.

Miss Sybil Keymer, "Riversmere," Albany Rd., Leighton Buzzard, Eng., writes: "I think I should inform you that I have recently derived very great benefit from the use of Phosferine. In the course of my profession. I have to travel a good deal in getting to my various concerts, and I find that since using Phosferine I am never troubled with the headaches and listlessness which follow a long railway journey, particularly during hot weather. This is of very great importance to me, as frequently only a very little time elapses between reaching my destination and the commencement of a concert, and it is such a relief to feel fresh and ready for playing in public undisturbed by the fatigues of long travelling, It is because I feel that Phosferine enables me to do myself justice as a violinist, preventing any of the unsteadiness of the muscle nerves, which is so harmful to tone and quality, that I confidently commend the tonic at every opportunity."-July 11; 1912.

TRAGIC AFFAIR ON THE MONGOLIA.

SUICIDE OF CHIEF STEWARD.

A painful tragedy occurred on board the P.M. steamer Mongolis on June 28th, during the liner's voyage from Yokohams to Honolulu. Sometime on that day, the chief staward, Mr. Donohne, seems to have committed suicide by jumping overboard no further trace having been found of him

The Japan Advertiser states that at 5.15 on the morning of the 28th ultimo he was seen by a boy while the latter was sugaged in cleaning the brasswork in one of the cabine, and he was also seen pausing the purser's office, but that point nothing could be ascortained regarding his movements. When Steamer reached Honolulu the local Press. men displayed great interest in the occur rence, and even advanced the suggestion that Donohue might have been the victim of foul play, but those most intimate with him and his reputation among his fellowofficers and subordinates scout the idea have pushed him overboard.

The chief stoward, though a compara tively young man, was one of the oldes employes of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, and among the fow lucky survivors of the terrible disaster to the Rio de Janeiro which foundered in San Francisco harbour. Donohus was a bacho'or, and apparently in good health, while financially he was supposed to be doing exceptionally. well, so that his associates are at a loss to account for his tragic act save on the assumption that it was the result of a sudden mental aborration. On the other hands his disappearance may have been due to pected clue, Doonhue's death will remain

With one or two exceptions, says the "Victoria Colonist" the officers of the Blue Funnel intermediary atcamabip Ajax are in the benedict class and naturally do not look with favor on the new steamship service inaugurated between Hongkong and Victoria, inasmuch as it will keep them away from their "better halves! for an indefinite period. Prior to the sailing of the Ajax from Liverpool, the officers lodged a protest with the Alfred Holt Company, and they left feeling better disposed towards everyboly when they were given assurance that they would either return or be transferred within twelve months.

YURN SHIR HAI'S COUNTER

REVOLUTION. somewhat remarkable view of the resent situation in Chine is given us in recent telegrams from the special corre spondent of the "Daily Telegraph" at Peking. He tells us that Tuan Shih-kai has now plainly acttled his line of action. and ovidently proposes to attempt thorough - connter revolution, making Nationalism, that is to say, the old Inshioned Chinese Nationalism, the main plank in his political platform. In a sories of Presidential orders he plainly appeals to every Chinese prejudice. admitly attempts to make out that the revolutionary leaders are men whose usefulness has ceased, and relegates the Manchu abdication to the background, gently assuming for himself full patriarchal authority. The excerpts which tho correspondent quotes from these orders. would seem to afford some justification or the views he expresses. One of the orders decrees that all colleges, schools, and public bodies are to revive the escrifielal ceromony of Confucius, which is to be carefully and minutely ordained. The correspondent remarks that this is of the highest importance, not only politically, since it makes the Reform party iconoolasts, but also because, if oboyed, i means a death-blow to the hopes which the Christian missions have cherished in China since the revolution. Real reli gious freedom, he says, cannot exist if Confucianism is re-established officially. Moreover, it is already foreshadowed that Yuan Shih-kai will worship as Patriarch at the Temple of Heaven. " He adds: The fact that the Peking Government asked for special Christian prayers for the Republic throughout England and America only two months ago, now assumes a particularly ugly aspect. Indeed, regarding the present position with impartial eyes, it can truthfully be said that the history of official China since 1011 appears to be expressed in the one pregnant word-bluff. Macaulay's his toric New Zealander is in danger of being hopolessly outclassed. In the distant tomorrow it will certainly be some bespectacled Chinese cynic, who, with the Six Classics under one arm and Nietzsche's philosophy under the other, quizzically surveys the ruins of St. Paul's exclaiming: Nothing really matters, excepting illness." This, of course, is somewhat picturesque, not to say extravagant, language, but those who understand the Chinese people best have always felt that it a sound and permanent form of Government was to arise on new lines, they must be Chinese lines. All the information coming to hand indicates that any attempt to run the Chinese Republic on the up-todate Western system is doomed to failure. It would only be an imitation Republic. As has been truly said: 'In the East, without inwards; and self-government under any of its munifestations, must "follow national development, nob precede it. h Yuan Shih-kai is, no doubt, fully conscious of this, and there is probably, therefore, more method in what to some observers seems his madness than the side world is aware of. In the meantime the financial situation in China is still a very pressing one Some figures quoted by the correspondent referred to above show how serious it is Chinese finance, as he rightly says, should rest upon Chinese revenues, not upon foreign loans. Yuan Shih-kai must realise that unless rich Central and South China willingly comes to the rescue the country must finally become bankrupt. Unless Parliament willingly votes taxation, only small doles given through provincial compassion will over reach the capital. An official statement made by Turkeys Cock-Phor Kai Kung the Finance Ministry in the Lower House as elsewhere, the changes must be slow and work from within outwards, not from on 20th inst. showed only $51,000,000 as "the Central Government's half-year that he had any personal enemy who would revenue, against $168,000,000 expenses. The fact that the provinces only remitted $18,500,000, and that the deficit of $117,000,000, although partially covered by the proceeds of the loan, makes further huge borrowings essential, is naturally causing consternation. Parliamen has already totally rejected the form and manner of the Budget as submitted, and the documents have been sent back and ordered to be re-drafted, thus making fresh bone of contention.

The Portuguese subject, named A. hrea, who was recently arrested by the Tientain British Municipal Police on a accident, but considering the circumstances Consular warrant issued in Shanghai, this appears unlikely. Failing an unex- charging him with embezzlement from the Kales Hotel, together with Sydney Charles Clayton, sentenced at the British Consula Court to nine months' imprisonment for forgery left Tientein on board the s.s. "Koonshing" in charge of Detective Sergeant Page, C.I.D., of the Shanghal Municipal Police.

THE REVOLT. FROM the lengthy extracts which we have been reproducing from ou Shanghai contemporaries, it would be that the revolt still wears serious aspect in the North and that the attack on the Kinngnan Arsenal may be relatively unsatisfactory for was of a very grave character. Thanks however, to the stubborn opposition they met from those in charge of the Arsenal supported valiantly by the northern troops and, mainly, by the Chinese mayy, the southerners were repulsed in every attack they made upon the coveted stronghold. There appears to have been considerable lubiety as to the loyalty of the navy. but when the critical moment arrived they fought as gallantly for properly a considerable distance constituted nuthority as any of the diffusing reflector it is able to seatter Northerners . It is thus obvious that President Yuan may thoroughly rely area. Each has its own proper not only upon his well-trained army but also spon his mayy. This will the occasion of the calabration of of course, tend to protract the hostilities and it would be very man to predict what might happen in Kiangsi and Kwangtung. DRAMATIC RECITAL.

Quite a large audience, which included His Excellency the Governor, Sir F. H. May, K.C.M.G., was present at the Peak Hotel last night to witness Mr. Marshall Darrach's performance of "Twelfth Night." As is well-known, Mr. Darrach is one of America's best exponents of Shakespeare, entering upon the play upon which he may be engaged with wholehearted zest and representing all of the characters as they appear in the text It is a very elever performance, and even though much of the play is necessarily omitted, its successful representation calls for deep and sympathetic insight into the work of the great dramatist together with histrionic talent of a high order. In most of what he undertook last night, Mr. Darrach was very successful, particularly as Sir Toby Belch, whom he made a most genial and rollicking old fellow of the Squire Western typo. As the conceited Malvolio, he was also very successful. Sir Andrew Aguecheck and the wonderfully wise clown, though minor " characters, are really, in the Twenty-eight cases of small pox were | circumstances, more difficult to reprerent, and doubtless their representation Sunday, of a more virulent type than it largely a matter of taste. Mr. Darrach followed in the best traditions of these parts, and, on the whole, achieved much success. Naturally, there is much of charm and delicacy of treatment lacking in his " Olivia" and " Viola: Still with his highly-trained and flexible voice, Mr. Darrich made quite a presentable appearance in essaying the parts of two such charmingly feminino characters. every respect, it was a delightful entertainment, and Mr. Darrack thoroughly merited the applause with which he was

BROTHERS AT LAW.

In Original Jurisdiction of the Suprame Court this morning before the Chief Justice, Sir William Rees Davies, K.C., Ho Chen Lam, alias Ho Yau Tong brought an action against his brother, Ho Sau Lam, alias Ho Ngok Lau, concerning a theatrical partnership. The plaintiff claimed as partner in the Po Choung firm of Canton and the Wah Kee firm of Hougkong: 1, a dissolution of the partnership entered into by agreement dated April 13, 1904, 2, an injunction to restrain the defendants from converting the Tsung Hing thestre into dwelling houses or in any way interfering with the structure, and to restrain him from interforing in any way with the partnership assets. The statement of claim set out that in the year 1878 the pluntiff, defondant not a partner in either the Po Cheung quence of the death of Ho Shun Lam that a new agreement of partnership was drawn year 1902, when the plaintiff retired from the partnership, and that all sums due pluratiff have been duly paid to him or that there is nothing now due to him. The Hon. Mr. W. Chatham, Director fendant also claimed that the claim war. barred under the Statute of Limitations. Mr. M. W. Slade, K.C., and Mr. F. C and Mr. 1 co D'Almada, appeared for the plaintiff; and Mr E. H. Sharpe, K.C., and Mr. G. C. Alabaster, instructed by and Grist, for the defendant.

> Mr. Slade in opening stated that the theatrical business in Canton and Honginvited his four housing as to senist him. They eighth of the business. After that balance sheets were duly presented each year. I 1893 Ho Chun Lam called his brothers to his bedside when he was dying and gave them each a special part of the business charge, atating that the assets of the were then about $300,000. The defendant was directed to manage the head office in Canton and plaintiff was to manage the Hongkong branch. In the following year no balance sheet was produced, and; added Slade, defendant seemed to have a eighty-eight, eighty-seven, and seventyconstitutional objection to producing ac. seven. ounts for he had never produced a balance sheet to this day. The most important ocument in the case was the agreement made, between the brothers in 1904. The case was proceeding when we went

FACE AND HANDS

Red, Watery, Burning and Itching Driven Yery Nearly Mad. Entirel Freed from the Trouble by Cuticura Soap and Ointment.

80, Chesterion Road, North Kensington, London, W., Eng. - "The trouble began in the early part of last summer and lasted up till about Christmas time. Bly hands. sents and face were one mass of red watery blisters, burning, itching and smarting a great deal, in fact they drove me very nearly mad. My rost was disturbed two or three times at night. I was given madicine and olutment but did not improve much until I wrote for a sample of Cutleurs Scap and Ointment. I found great relief from the sample and got some more. used the Cuticura Olument and Soap every time I washed as per the directions and was entirely freed from my trouble. I have used the Cutieurs Ointment on my wounds when I have knocked great lumps out of my hands. It soother and heals them very quickly." (Signed) J.
